Good Day For Knives.

In a difficulty which occurred at Ruddles Mills Sunday morning between Richard Henson and Cleveland Weaver, the latter was dangerously cut. The difficulty took place in front of the store of Albert Rice, where it is said Weaver was playing with a small boy when Henson came up. The two men engaged in heated words, when, it is alleged Weaver threw a stone striking Henson in the head.

Henson closed in on Weaver with an open knife and inflicted a deep wound on the head and face, the gash starting at a point near the top of the head, ranging downward, narrowly missing the eye and cutting the lip badly.

He was taken to the home of a relative where he received medical attention, eighteen stitches being necessary to close the wound. It is feared his eye may be affected as a result of the injury.

Henson received a gash in the side of the head from the rock thrown by Weaver and a physician was called to stop the profuse flow of blood. Deputy Sheriff Talbott went to Ruddles Mills and placed Henson under arrest, lodging him in the Paris jail, but later he gave bond for his release. Weaver, who is a clerk in the Stout Restaurant in this city, was on a visit to relatives in Ruddles Mills, where the cutting occurred.

In a difficulty which occurred at the store of Welsh Brothers, near Centerville, Will Welsh, a member of the firm, was cut and stabbed thirty-six times by Arch Ryles, who, it is said, attacked him after he had called him to the door of his store.

Facts concerning the difficulty are very meager but it is said that on last Saturday night Ryles became involved in a difficulty with a man whose name could not be learned in the store of Welsh Bros., and Will Welsh, in an effort to keep down trouble between the two men, separated them and locked up his store for the night.

Ryles, according to our informant, went away with the crowd, but returned shortly afterwards and called Welsh to the door, asking him to let him in to get a bundle he had forgotten. Welsh unlatched the door, when, it is said, Ryles sprang at him with an open knife. In his efforts to avoid the blows Welsh slipped to the door, Ryles upon him, the latter using his knife freely.

Thirty-six times Ryles slashed or stabbed Welsh, but only one of the wounds, which was in the side, was serious. Welsh is suffering considerably from his injuries but none of the wounds will prove serious. No warrant was issued for the arrest of Ryles and it is said Welsh will not prosecute him.

A man by the name of Blackerby became disorderly in the grocery store of George Insko at the corner of Eighth and High streets Saturday afternoon about 4 o'clock, and when Insko attempted to put him out a scuffle ensued which continued out in the street crowded with Christmas shoppers. Some of the crowd took a hand in the trouble and for a few minutes a free-for-all fight ensued. Deputy Sheriff Earnest Martin happened along and made an effort to restore order. In the melee he was slashed across the face with a knife by Jeff Risk, a negro, who in some way had gotten into the fight. One of Martin's wounds extended from the right ear across the cheek bone to the bridge of the nose, and the other across the right cheek. Fortunately none of the wounds are serious and Martin is getting along nicely. Risk made his escape and has not been apprehended.

Chas. Tutter, colored, residing in the negro suburb of Claysville, was cut on the left cheek Sunday afternoon while engaged in a fight with his step-father, Lewis Lee. Lee was arrested and placed in jail. In Squire Fretwell's court Tuesday morning he was fined $25 and costs.

Reuel Branfield, a negro desperado, shot and instantly killed Louis Ramsey and mortally wounded Frank Ramsey, who died about midnight Tuesday in Fulton county. The negro was captured and taken to Paducah for safe keeping. A mob of several hundred pursued the sheriff and his prisoner when it was learned he had been captured, but the would be lynchers were eluded.

On Robinson creek in Pike county Christmas day Noah Roberts, Gen. Branahan and Jailer Branahan met in the road after a quarrel and a desperate battle ensued resulting in Roberts being instantly killed. The Branahan brothers then clashed resulting in both being fatally injured. An old grudge is said to have existed.

Cow creek, Magoffin county, was the scene of a terrible tragedy Sunday evening, when Samuel Pickleheimer, aged 50 years, former justice of the peace, was shot dead in the door of his dwelling. Barry Burten is under arrest charged with the killing.

While wrestling in a spirit of fun over the possession of a shot gun George Rice, aged 19 years, was almost instantly killed when the gun was discharged and the contents entered his breast.

Near Wilhelmina, Todd county, Horace Greenfield was shot and seriously wounded by Neal Shanklin. Shanklin claims the shooting was accidental.

In a saloon fight at Winchester Monday night Ben Boughy almost decapitated Dick Jordan with a knife.

Looks Like Business.

An entirely unprecedented thing occurred in Washington during the week following the convening of the present session of Congress on December 4, although the country may not have been too busy to have noticed it.

The Democratic House met on every one of the six days following the opening day, remaining in session throughout each day, every moment consumed in real work, until it was time to light the lamps.

This policy is in contrast to the Republican custom of meeting on opening day, and, after remaining in session a few moments, adjourning to the second day thereafter; and upon convening the second day thereafter; of adjourning to the second day after that and so on until two full weeks had been wasted, when adjournment would be taken for the holidays. In the meantime of course the Congressman's pay of $20.83 per day, $156 per week and $625 per month would go merrily on the people paying the bill. The new policy simply means this, that the Democrats mean business.

Not a "Do Nothing" Session

"If anybody thinks this is going to be a 'do nothing' Congress they are badly mistaken," was the answer made by Champ Clark to the proposition that the Democrats proposed to devote the present session to efforts to "put the Republicans in a hole," so as to strengthen their own position for next year.

"The Democratic party made the definite promise to give the people relief from conditions which have come to be regarded as intolerable," the Speaker continued. "The best way for us to play politics is to carry to a conclusion, insofar as we are able, the excellent record we have already made. The people are looking to us for accomplishment rather than for strategy, and we need have no fear of the future if we go along with our program as we have started."

Mr. Clark has been telling his co-workers in the house that if the party goes to dilly-dallying around, trying to put the president and the standpatters and the insurgents in a deep, dark hole, the result will be more disastrous to the hole diggers than to those whom they might intend to engulf therein.

Mr. Clark, in other words, realizes that the present is his party's opportunity, and that the best way to take advantage of it is through action, rather than with attempts to shift the blame to the other fellow.

Why Teddy Was Doomed.

The Roosevelt renomination talk, which was more pronounced during the recent meeting of the Republican national committee than at any time since the former president's return from Africa, has died down again. And now comes the report that this talk was started by the old guard leaders among the committeemen for the purpose of frightening Mr. Taft into allowing them to have control of the preliminaries of the next Republican convention in Chicago. This control means a big advantage to those who possess it, for with it goes the authority to dictate seating arrangements, admissions, distribution of patronage and committee assignments; in short it means control of the convention right up to the time of balloting.

The Roosevelt talk, according to the best information, did not spring from friends of the former president, but from his enemies. The plan was, by starting this talk to disconcert and divide the insurgents. Then, with Mr. Taft deserted by all except the southern postmaster delegates, a deadlock could be forced, which could be broken at the proper time in favor of a compromise candidate acceptable to the old guard leaders.

As a result of these machinations it has been stated, apparently with some show of authority that Mr. Taft is so disgusted with conditions within his party, that he may withdraw from the race entirely.

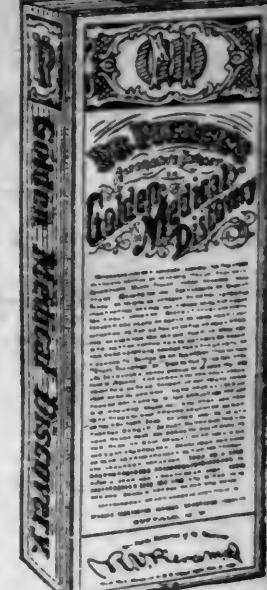

Stomach Blood and Liver Troubles

Much sickness starts with weak stomach, and consequent poor, impoverished blood. Nervous and pale-people lack good, rich, red blood. Their stomachs need invigorating for, after all, a man can be no stronger than his stomach.

A remedy that makes the stomach strong and the liver active, makes rich red blood and overcomes and drives out disease-producing bacteria and cures a whole multitude of diseases.

Get rid of your Stomach Weakness and Liver Laziness by taking a course of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—the great Stomach Restorative, Liver Invigorator and Blood Cleanser.

You can't afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery," which is a medicine of known composition, having a complete list of ingredients in plain English on its bottle-wrapper, same being attested as correct under oath. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

THEATRICAL.

"THE PINK LADY" AT LEXINGTON.

The engagement extraordinary of Klaw & Erlanger's musical comedy "The Pink Lady" which is to be seen at the Lexington Opera House Friday and Saturday and Saturday matinee January 5 and 6, brings there the most talked of hit that the American stage has known in a decade. The piece has never failed to arouse interest and already has a chain of records to its credit that would make other things look small in comparison. It has broken all records in Boston following its sensational engagement in New York City where it ran for a year.

Another company played one week in Pittsburgh to the enormous receipts of $23,405, which included a special Thanksgiving matinee and yet which is a record that will hardly be equaled in a long time. In Washington which is extraordinarily a one week's stand the company played two weeks to receipts that ran close to $46,000, there by setting a new mark that will stand for a long time in the capital of the nation.

The company to present "The Pink Lady" in Lexington is the newest and prettiest organization Klaw & Erlanger have identified with this, their pet attraction. It numbers one hundred people and includes a cast that was selected as to its individual strength. In addition the chorus is known as the pink of perfection part of the performance and the famous Pink Lady Orchestra that played Ivan Caryll, a delightful score all through the New York run is traveling with the company and will take over the orchestra pit, allowing the Lexington musicians a holiday while the big musical comedy is in Lexington.

This should prove a delightful part of the presentations for the music requires subtle treatment to bring out its niceties and though you may be familiar with the leading strains of the score you will not have experienced its delight until you hear it played by the orchestra that first made the music popular in this country.

Overcoming the Grouch. A grouchy prospect doesn't seem half so grouchy when you stand right up to him and state your proposition in a fearless manner.

Garrett's Election May be Illegal.

The Hon. H. Green Garrett, of Winchester, who was recently elected District Chairman of the Tenth District Republican Committee to succeed the Hon. Robert H. Winn, of Mt. Sterling, who resigned, may have to be elected over again. Some Republicans not liking the manner in which the election was held have begun an investigation of party usages, and now allege that the election was clearly illegal and that any acts Mr. Garrett may perform cannot be binding.

The claim is now made that at the meeting at which Mr. Garrett was chosen chairman a majority of the committeemen was not present in person, as required by the rules, but that most of the counties were represented by proxy. What steps will be taken in the matter cannot be learned.

Neck Broken by Interurban Car. Menilus Coleman, a negro, 40 years old, of Georgetown, was struck by an interurban car on the Georgetown pike about three and a half miles from Lexington Monday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, and died at St. Joseph's Hospital soon after being taken to Lexington. The negro was believed to have been drinking and to have sat down on the end of a crosstie and gone to sleep. The front steps of the car hit him, throwing him to the middle of the pike and breaking his neck.

National Corn Show Off.

According to information received by George S. Karsner the Kentucky grain expert of Lexington, there will be no national corn show the coming year, the reason for the suspension of the exhibition, so Mr. Karsner, who is in touch with association officials, says, is that the association has been losing money for the last two years and is now face to face with a considerable deficit, and this will have to be paid before another annual show is attempted. The last national corn show was held at Columbus, O., and was one of the greatest in the history of the association, but the attendance fell far short of expectations.

Ruthless Destruction of Books.

Napoleon was indirectly responsible for the destruction of a vast quantity of books. In 1812 he framed a law allowing goods to be imported from the United Kingdom, provided that the importer shipped an equivalent quantity of French goods to this country. French merchants generally met the requirements of this law by shipping books to the value of the wares they wished to import. Having served to gain the necessary permit, the books were thrown overboard on the way to England, as there was no demand for them here. Shippers could well afford to do this, for coffee and sugar were then about ten times dearer in France than in England. It has been estimated that books to the nominal value of four million dollars were destroyed in this way.

Home Defined.
Home is a magic word, and we seldom try to analyze it. A little Polish girl in a public school was asked recently to write a definition of "home." "A home," she wrote, "is where people live, and where a man or somebody comes home and finds people there, and then eats."

If Its Right for a Man, Its Right for a Woman.

Let the women vote. Yes by all means let them vote, let them do just as they please, put them on their honor and I will guarantee they will uphold it as well as men, pull down the bars, if they want to come down to equality with just a little old mere man let them do it.

If they want absolute equality by all means give it to them, but be sure it is absolutely equal. Quit criticizing them in matter of dress, let them dress to suit themselves (they will do it anyway); let them wear the plain skirt, the ruffed skirt, the thin skirt, the thick skirt, the divided skirt, the hobble skirt, the Frouster skirt, the harem skirt, or just plain old fashioned breeches if they choose.

Give them the exact privilege in everything as a man, (if they consider it a privilege).

If they want to get out and get full and paint the town red, let them do it. If its right for a man its right for a woman. If they want to drink whiskey and smoke cigarettes let them do it. If its right for a man its right for a woman. If they want to play poker, shoot craps, bet on horse races, a base ball game or play seven up for the drinks with an old greasy deck, let them do it. If its right for a man its right for a woman.

If they want to carry a pistol in their hip pocket and a dirk up their sleeve, let them do it. If its right for a man its right for a woman.

If they want to get knocked down for calling somebody a liar, let them do it. If its right for a man its right for a woman.

If they want to get into a real knockout and drag out fight for talking about their neighbor, let them do it. If its right for a man its right for a woman.

If they want to stand on the corner and make eyes at the men, let them do it. If its right for a man its right for a woman.

If they want to go to the club every night and get full and come home in the wee small hours, let them do it. If its right for a man its right for a woman.

If they are on a street car and a man comes in, let them get up and give him their seat. If its right for a man, its right for a woman.

If they meet a man in a muddy place on the street, let the woman step in the mud half the time, and let the man go over dry shod. If its right for a man its right for a woman.

If a man takes off his hat to a woman, let the woman take off her hat to him. If its right for a man its right for a woman. And so on and so on, et cetera, ad infinitum, Epluribus unum, and et al.

Pull down the bars let them have all the equality they are looking for, but be sure it is equal. Give them every privilege as men, but be sure that they get no more, for they say they don't want any more, for God made man, male and female, made He them and gave them dominion over all the works of His hands, but man immediately set woman upon a pedestal and has kept her there for the ages, and she has been begging from time immemorial to be taken down. Now let the man take her down. And see how soon she will beg to be put back.

A mule will always jump the fence out of a good pasture into a dry field, and will never rest satisfied until he does.

So woman, like the mule, will never be satisfied until she gets out of the good pasture into the dry field and the sooner the fence is taken down the better for all parties concerned, for she will never be satisfied until she tries it and wont be satisfied then.

Colored Teachers in Session

Here.

Nearly two hundred of the leading colored teachers of the State are assembled here in the thirty-third Annual session of the State Association of Teachers in Colored Schools. A most hospitable welcome was extended them at the Wednesday evening session when teachers and citizens filled to its capacity the auditorium of the Paris High School. The "keys of the city" were turned over to the Association by the son of Mayor J. T. Hinton. Other welcome addresses were delivered by Supt. Geo. W. Chapman, and the Rev. J. B. Redmond.

These addressers abounded in assurances of a heartfelt welcome to the Association on behalf of the citizens of Paris, regardless of creed or color.

The Rev. J. E. Wood, of Danville, made an eloquent response to these addresses.

Prof. J. R. E. Lee, director of the academic department of the famous Tuskegee Institute, of Noram, Ala., made the principal address at the Wednesday session. His address was a plea to the teachers to bring education nearer to the people by giving the pupils a correct and training in the practical affairs of life. This address was in line with the system of education which is advocated by Booker T. Washington.

Aside from set addresses by prominent educators the teachers are classified according to the kind of work which they engage into principals, High School and Grammar School departments. As the heads of these departments are the three prominent educators, Prof. G. P. Russell, of Lexington, W. H. Mayor and H. Clarence Russell, of Frankfort. The most advanced ideas of teaching and school government are being advanced by teachers who are factors in progressive educational affairs of the State.

The matter of industrial education is one which threads itself through all of the principal discussions.

Whether more stress should be laid upon intellectual or upon industrial education is a topic that has able advocates upon both sides. However these factions are agreed in the opinion that the highest type of citizenship will be evolved from that education which on the one hand will produce out of those most talented and able and intellectual leaderships and on the other, that makes out of the masses an honest and prosperous citizenship.

Dr. M. C. B. Mason, leader of the race, was the chief speaker at the Thursday occasion, delivering an able address on the subject "Napoleon at Waterloo," to a large and appreciative audience at the opera house. This address was followed by the annual banquet to the delegates, an occasion which was in truth, "a feast of reason and flow of soul."

The colored people of Paris have never entertained a more intelligent gathering of their people than this Association, nor could they more hospitably perform this function than they are doing.

The Association will take an advanced position in its declaration of principles and recommendations for wise and necessary school legislation.

This paper comes from press before the election of officers however it is assured that Prof. F. M. Wood will be re-elected president as his record in office is one of self-sacrifice, impartiality and constructive leadership.

The members of the Association, during their sojourn here have conducted themselves in a manner that reflects credit upon this body of leaders of the colored race.

THEATRICAL.

"FAITY FELIX" COMING.

Every man, woman and child the country over is familiar with the popular cartoons of "Fatty Felix," which cartoonist McDougall drew for the daily papers. What McDougall was to the world of comic artists, Mr. W. C. Herman is to the dramatic world, and from these famous cartoons he has written a play of the same name which is producing more genuine laughs and heart throb than any play of the present season. It is a pronounced success and with the excellent cast which the producer, Mr. Henry W. Link has secured for it, an evening of whole some pleasure awaits the patrons of the Paris Grand on Wednesday, January 3. Not only will we be treated to a good, clean dramatic production but we are to receive a distinctly high class vaudeville and musical program.

Popular prices -Dress circle, 75 cents; parquette, 50 cents; balcony, 35 cents; gallery 25 and 35 cents. Seats on sale at Mitchell & Blakemore's Monday morning.

DEATH.

Mr. Matthew A. Kenney, one of Bourbon county's representative citizens, died Saturday at 12:30 o'clock at his home at Monterey, on the Mayville and Lexington pike about three miles from Paris.

Mr. Kenney had been in declining health for some time, and about six months ago suffered a paralytic stroke at Olympia Springs, from which he never recovered, but the immediate cause of his death was uraemic poison.

Mr. Kenney was 75 years of age and is survived by his wife, who was Miss Brooks, one daughter, Mrs. Chas. A. Webber, and two sons, Mr. Walter Kenney and Mr. Clarence Kenney, all of Bourbon.

The funeral was held Monday morning at ten o'clock at the family residence, the services being conducted by Rev. Dr. B. M. Shive, assisted by Dr. W. W. Logan. Burial will be in the Paris cemetery.

Editor and City Official Scrap.

T. M. Thomason, editor of the Georgetown News and City Treasurer John White had a personal encounter on the streets of Georgetown Tuesday but friends interfered before any serious damage was done. Thomason recently wrote an editorial, urging that an expert accountant be engaged to examine the city accounts and make a public statement of affairs. White took exception to the editorial, and when he and Thomason met hot words passed and several blows were struck. Friends prevented further hostilities.

Record Broken for Futurity.

Nine hundred and sixty-five weanlings, or the greatest number that have made the Fall payment since the inauguration of the Kentucky Futurity have been "kept good" in the twenty-second renewal of the big Kentucky feature race. From this number will come the colts that will contest for the two-year old division in 1913 and the three year old divisions in 1914.

Thirty-six out of the forty-six states in the Union are represented while there are also several from Canada in the two year old division. The nominators in the two year old division total 309 or a little more than three colts to the man. Thirty-eight of them have 540 colts or about 50 per cent of the entire number.

YOUNG WIFE IS TIED TO A WILD BRONCHO

Body Found With a Lariat About the Neck and Husband Is Accused.

San Rafael, N. M.—The torn and bleeding body of Mrs. Juan de la Chamzal, the young wife of a prosperous ranchman living near here, was found lying on the plains miles from the ranch. About the neck of the young woman was the noose of a lariat, one end of which had been frayed by being dragged across the rough expanse of country until the rope had been cut through. This gave the mounted sheriff and his deputies a clew which they followed to the ranch itself.

There it was found that two weeks ago while her husband was absent from home some one called her to her window and an instant later carried her to the compound where she was tied to the wildest broncho on the ranch. The authorities claim the feat was accomplished only after the woman's assailant had shown the rarest horse subduing qualities.

Chamzal, the husband, was found by a sheriff's posse 100 miles from his ranch home. He was arrested, charged with the crime. The authorities expect to prove that he was enraged because during his absence from home his wife went into town to a theater with a male relative.

ELKS FIGHT OUT KINGSHIP

Danville, Pa.—Moving picture men lost a grand opportunity by not being in the vicinity of the game preserve of Alexander Billmeyer at Washingtonville, when they might have snapped a fight for supremacy between the monster elk Jumbo, and his younger rival Job. The fight, which was a thriller from the start, lasted one hour, and resulted in the downfall of Jumbo and the exaltation of Job. The wild animals fought ferociously and without a minute's let-up. Mr. Billmeyer describes the fight as unparalleled by anything he has ever seen.

The bulls were dehorned about the last of August, and it was the first time they have been permitted to come together since. Jumbo weighed about 1,400 pounds while his rival weighs but 1,200. Job, however, is younger

Germs Spread in Skin

Eczema, Psoriasis and other skin troubles are caused by myriads of germs at work in the skin. Unless these germs are promptly destroyed they rapidly multiply, gnawing their way deep into the sensitive tissue. This is what causes that painful itch, and what seemed a mere rash may grow worse and develop into a loathsome and torturing skin disease with its years of misery!

Don't take any chances! Destroy the germs at the beginning of the trouble with the soothing and cleansing wash, the D. D. D. Prescription for Eczema.

A 25c bottle will prove this to you.

The Ideal Reading Lamp

Opticians agree that the light from a good oil lamp is easier on the eyes than any other artificial light.

The Rayo Lamp is the best oil lamp made.

It gives a strong, yet soft, white light; and it never flickers. It preserves the eyesight of the young; it helps and quickens that of the old.

You can pay $5, $10, or $20 for other lamps, but you cannot get better light than the low-priced Rayo gives.

Made of solid brass, nickel-plated. Easily lighted, without removing shade or chimney. Easy to clean and rewick.

Are Men Uninterested in Their Wives?

In the January Woman's Home Companion Mary Heaton Vorse writes an article entitled "Is the American Man a Failure?" Following is an extract:

"There are thousands of American men who are merely indifferent to their women. They are proud of them, but supremely uninterested, and ask of their wives only to be let alone. Their business is their life; it is their life after they are married just as it was before. They are playing a tremendous game, and in this country a man has got to win or go to the wall. It makes no difference whether a man is married or a bachelor; it is not the women of the country who determine if a man must work at the great rate of speed at which they labor—it is the pace of the country itself which demands it. Our men give generously and indulgently to their women-folks; they like to see that they have 'everything in the world,' as the saying is. It pleases their vanity to see their houses well appointed and their women well dressed; they like the luxury of it for themselves. What is to be expected of young girls whose fathers have had no influence in their bringing up, but have merely paid the bills—young girls who have never been taught the uses of money nor any details of any business whatsoever, and whose whole duty in life is to dress with the extreme perfection of which our women are past masters and to keep in good physical condition and talk amusingly. These are the prices of success, success being measured in this country, elsewhere, in terms of marriage and attention."

Yancey Added to Law Faculty.

The College of Law of Transylvania University has added Mr. Hogan Yancey to its teaching force, and he is now instructing in criminal law. Mr. Yancey having recently been elected City Attorney, where he will have to look after the prosecution of the criminal offenses against the city, has made a special study of criminal law, and will be quite well fitted for the work of instructing the class in this subject. Mr. Yancey attended Transylvania University and is a graduate of Transylvania Law School.

Plumber Rat.

An old story used to go around of a plumber who kept a lot of rats in his shop in a trap, and when he had a call always took one along. The rat was frightened or forced to take to the drain, and he burrowed through to his liberty in the sewer. Of course, it was not necessary to take the pipes all to pieces, but the big bill came in, anyhow.

Credit Societies.

There are now 3,456 urban and rural co-operative credit societies in India, with a membership of 226,958 and a working capital of $3,442,580, of which only $240,590 is contributed by the government. These figures represent the work of about seven years.

The Poultry Yard.

Late hatched pullets will come in profit in a month or so.

You want water not quite 200 degrees hot to scald chicks just right.

A man need not be an expert to start poultry culture, but he needs to be more or less expert to succeed.

Many dealers object to eggs with pale yolks. When you find yours are getting that way, put a little more corn in the ration.

Eggs overwashed in water lose their beautiful fresh appearance they have when first laid. Add a bit of vinegar to the water and use as little water as possible.

A bit of experience with damp floors: The upper sash of the windows were taken out and muslin placed there instead, and the dampness entirely disappeared. The theory of this seems to be that the moisture rising escaped through the muslin instead of remaining in the house.

There are many days in this month when it is unfit for rowls to be outdoors. For that reason they should be supplied with a good-sized house, and the floor heavily littered so they may exercise and keep in good health. The premiss must be kept perfectly clean. Filthy quarters breed disease, and diseased poultry is not profitable.

Something queer about hens and even chicks turning cannibals and eating each other up alive. The best explanation so far is that birds that do this need more meat to eat. A bit of scratch comes on some hens and the rest see the red spot or the drop of blood, and out of curiosity pick it off. That gives them a taste of the blood and at it they go to devour the poor creature. If plenty of meat scraps are given the chances are that you will never have any trouble of this kind.—From January Farm Journal.

Rivals Grandeur of Kentucky Wonder.

A subterranean cavern rivaling in beauty and grandeur the celebrated Mammoth Cave, in Kentucky, or Wyandotte Cave, in Indiana, was discovered a few days ago at the quarry of a stone company in Washington Township, Harrison county, on the Ohio river, 25 miles below New Albany, Ind. An opening to the cavern was uncovered in blasting stone out of the quarry.

The cavern has been explored for a distance of three quarters of a mile and the stalactite and stalagmite formations are said to be more beautiful and more elaborate than those of either Mammoth or Wyandotte Cave.

The newly discovered cavern is within ten miles of Wyandotte and

MILLERSBURG ITEMS.

The marriage of Miss Marie Louise Cray, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cray, to Mr. John Clarke Leer, Jr., the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Leer, was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Methodist church. This was the most notable society event which has taken place here in the past two years. The society events which have led up to it were numerous and the whole culminated in a beautiful climax Wednesday afternoon when this happy couple became one. Owing to the inclemency of the weather of Tuesday it was feared by those most interested that it would be exceedingly disagreeable. During the night the rain ceased and it turned colder. While the wind was disagreeable and a light falling snow was somewhat unpleasant the weather was far better than the preceding day and the large handsomely dressed audience was found waiting long before the time for the ceremony to begin, the spacious auditorium filling early.

The altar was decorated with ferns and palms, and flowers of pink and white were everywhere in profusion. Miss Lucille Dailey presided at the organ, rendering sweet music while the audience assembled. Promptly at the appointed time the bridal party entered in the following order under the beautiful strain of Lohengrin's bridal chorus: Ushers, Alex Miller and Carlton Ball, left aisle; James Miller and Ed Fagan, right aisle; Miss Ethel Johnson, maid of honor, left aisle, gowned in white serge suit with pink roses; Richard Gerrard, best man, right aisle. The bride, gowned in a handsome white broadcloth suit, with picture hat and carrying brideroses, came down the left aisle, and the groom down the right aisle. All met at the altar forming a pretty group where they were joined by Rev. Oney, of Lexington, the officiating minister.

The Methodist Episcopal ceremony was used and was delivered in an impressive manner, the beauty of which was heightened by soft, sweet music at the organ. At the close of the ceremony the bridal party left the church under the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march. They returned at once to the home of the bride where after a few congratulations from relatives and most intimate friends they took an auto for Lexington leaving on the 8:40 train over the C. & O. for the East where they will sojourn several weeks.

The presents were costly, handsome and numerous. This young couple enter life under the most favorable circumstances and are members of the most prominent families of Bourbon. Miss Cray is an accomplished young lady, a graduate of M. F. C. a skillful violinist and vocalist. Mr. Leer is a graduate of M. M. I. and also of Kentucky State University, Lexington. He is a young man of high attainments and is one of the most successful farmers of Central Kentucky. They both have a large circle of friends who extend congratulations. The following is a partial list of the out of town guests: Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Current, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Clarke, Rev. O. E. Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Stout, Lexington; Miss Ida Lee Harris and brother, Mr. Jeff Harris, Nolan, W. Va.; Miss Etta Douchemin, Cincinnati; Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Clarke, Louisville; Mrs. Nellie Highland, Mr. and Mrs. Leer Stout, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Carter, Paris; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kennedy, Carlisle; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. AARON McCONNELL.

Christmas trees were very much in evidence here Monday. In most every home where there were little folks the Christmas tree was to be seen. The Sunday school and teacher of the Christian church were nicely remembered Sunday morning with boxes of candy and oranges. The Methodist church gave their Christmas donation to the worthy poor of the town and community and a number of little hearts were made happy.

Among those who spent Christmas day away from home are the following: Mr. W. M. Becroft, Mrs. Anna Jefferson, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jefferson with Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Becroft at Paris, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. A large bouquet of red carnations adorned the center of the table above which the wedding veil of the bride's mother was draped to the corners of the table. A delightful dinner consisting of four courses was served the guests.

Amity Lodge No. 40, F. & A. M., held its annual election Wednesday night. Quite a large number of Masons were present. The following officers were elected:

Worshipful Master—M. P. Collier.
Senior Warden—H. M. Campbell.
Junior Warden—J. B. Cray.
Treasurer—S. M. Allen.
Secretary J. H. Burroughs.
Chaplain—Aaron McConnell.
W. A. Butler and R. M. Caldwell were re-elected Senior and Junior Deacons.

Mr. W. V. Shaw, the retiring Master, has acquitted himself with much distinction during his incumbency and was constantly working to the best interests of the local organization. His successor, Mr. Collier, has previously served two terms in this capacity. Mr. Allen, as treasurer, was re-elected by a unanimous vote and on June 1 will enter on his tenth consecutive term. Amity Lodge has enjoyed a brilliant year, ten new members being admitted while only two have been lost, one by death, and one by demit.

Local Option Compromise.

A press dispatch from Frankfort says: "A compromise county unit local option measure will be offered to the Legislature next month, and it is believed it will be acceptable to both sides of the long drawn-out fight. The compromise bill will provide that whenever 50 per cent or a majority of the votes of any city in the State ask for a vote on the liquor question a vote shall be taken as to whether or not liquor shall be sold in that city, the vote to be taken irrespective of the fact that the whole county may have previously voted dry. The present law provides that here 25 per cent or only one fourth of the voters in cities of the first, second, third and fourth classes sign a petition asking for a vote on the liquor question the vote shall be taken."

Make Right Use of Money.
Money is sublime or ridiculous, according to the man who has it.

The Natural Thing.

"There," cried Jonathan to a newly-arrived Irishman, as he waved his hand in the direction of the Horse-shoe falls at Niagara; "there, now, isn't it wonderful?"

"Wonderful? What's wonderful about that?"

"Why, to see all that water come thundering over those rocks."

"Faith, then, to tell ye the honest truth," was the response, "Oi can't see anything so wonderful about that. What is thir to prevent it from comin' over?"—Housekeeper.
